

Worry and Fret

Luke 10:38-42

In today's Gospel Mary & Martha symbolise the contemplative and active dimensions of life, which, at times, are difficult to balance.

Many people misunderstand hospitality. They worry and fret about decorating the house and preparing abundant food. Yet sometimes it is something else that is needed to make people feel at home, namely, to sit with guests and to listen to them speaking.

We can make the same mistake in relation to people who are important to us in life: children, friends, parents or others. We can worry and fret about doing things for them when perhaps the important thing is to give them time and to listen to them.

When it comes to welcoming God into our lives, one appropriate response is to give time listening to God's word.

As mentioned in last weeks Newsletter it is planned to display signs in Old Killeen to commemorate all laid to rest there. The help of local people is needed in identifying a number of weathered grave markers. Furthermore, two grave stones, which appear to be out of their original location, are leaning against a large cross towards the front of the cemetery. Anyone who can shed light on these matters is asked to contact Fr Mulligan.
