

Someone Is Calling You!

If you have ever worked in a large organisation, you know what it is like if you meet the boss by accident and his face lights up and he greets you, 'Hello Anne, how are you?' It matters a lot to us to be known.

Jesus says 'I know my own and mine know me.' Not only does he know us, but we believe that his providence shapes our lives. He calls us by name. We are, each of us, called – we have a vocation. It may be to an obviously important job like rearing children or caring for a sick or elderly person. It may be a full time vocation in the religious life or priesthood. It may be the calling of those who only stand and wait.

It is not a pigeon-hole kind of call, fixed for our lifetime, but rather something dynamic, that changes as we grow older, grow stronger and then grow weaker with age.

Lord, may I hear your call.
