

Forgotten Heroes

“In my thirty years of work in the developing world I have not come across a better way of getting help to those who need it most than through the missionaries on the ground.

Missionaries rarely make the headlines & are the forgotten heroes of the struggle for global equality. But they are on the front line of development; literally saving lives.

Our missionaries are the true diaspora. They left Ireland not for career or profit but for the relief of pain & suffering in some of the harshest terrains this earth has to offer.”

Mission Sunday

This Sunday is Mission Sunday. Pope Benedict reminds us that the absence of God in the lives of millions is the greatest suffering. People are hungry for God, not just for bread and freedom. Please help missionaries to reflect God's love with the support of your prayer, offering of suffering and a generous financial contribution.
