

I Arise Today...

*I arise today
in power and might.
I call upon the Trinity,
with faith in the threeness and trust in the oneness of the great world's Maker.*

*I Arise to day.
God's power for my pilot,
God's might my upholding,
God's wisdom my guiding,
God's eye as my outlook,
God's ear for my hearing,
God's word on my tongue,
God's right hand to ward me,
God's path for my treading,
God's shield my protecting,
God's host my defending,
against pitfalls of demons,
the alluring of vices, . . .
against them that wish ill to me,
afar and anear, alone or with others*

From a long, ancient Irish prayer sometimes called 'The Deer's Cry' or 'St Patrick's Breastplate.'
