

A Life Poured Out....

In today's Second Reading, the author of the Second Letter to Timothy speaks in the following terms:

'As for me, my life has already been poured out as an offering to God. The time of my death is near. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful'.

Many people experience their lives as 'poured out', often against their will, owing to a range of different circumstances.

Life has a way of taking from us, whether we like it or not. Could we ever consider offering even our very helplessness to God?
