

Prayer of St. Columbanus

Let the mind press onward, even as life presses onward, & let maturity of mind increase with the fullness of old age.

And as our span of life grows shorter so let the number of our faults grow less,
that we may leave the world to its own ways,
as we go to the Lord.

May this be so by the help
of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom be glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen

The Earth—A Garden

“Nurturing and cherishing creation is a command God gives not only at the beginning of history, but to each of us. It is part of his plan; it means causing the world to grow responsibly, transforming it so that it may be a garden, a habitable place for everyone.”

Volunteer Drivers Needed

The Irish Cancer Society's Care to Drive service is currently seeking volunteer drivers to drive local patients to and from their chemotherapy treatments in Mayo General Hospital. We are looking for volunteers from all over Co. Mayo to pick patients up at their homes, drive them to the door of the hospital, pick them up again when they are finished their treatment and bring them home. The service is free to the patient and all drivers expenses are paid. Telephone Rebecca on 01 2316 642 or email transport@irishcancer.ie
